To repeal section 1505 of the Social Security Act so that in determining eligibility of Federal employees for unemployment compensation their accrued annual leave shall be treated in accordance with State laws, and for other purposes.

April 22, 1960
[H. R. 3472]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, effective only with respect to benefit years which begin more than thirty days after the date of enactment of this Act, section 1505 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1365) is hereby repealed.

72 Stat. 1089.

SEC. 2. Section 1511(f) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1371(f)) is amended by striking out "section 1505 applies" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 1505 continues (without regard to its repeal) to apply".

42 USC 413.

SEC. 3. Section 213(a)2(B) of the Social Security Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following language: "If, in the case of an individual who did not die prior to January 1, 1955, and who attained retirement age or died before July 1, 1957, the requirements for insured status in section 214(a)(3) are not met because of his having too few quarters of coverage but would be met if his quarters of coverage in the first calendar year in which he had any covered employment had been determined on the basis of the period during which wages were earned rather than on the basis of the period during which wages were paid (any such wages paid that are reallocated on an earned basis shall not be used in determining quarters of coverage for subsequent calendar years), then upon application filed by the individual or his survivors and satisfactory proof of his record of wages earned being furnished by such individual or his survivors, the quarters of coverage in such calendar year may be determined on the basis of the periods during which wages were earned."

42 USC 414.

42 USC 401-425.

This amendment shall be applicable in the case of monthly benefits under title II of the Social Security Act for months after June 1957, and in the case of the lump-sum death payments under such title, with respect to deaths occurring after such month; the requirements for filing applications for such benefits and payments within certain time limits, as prescribed in sections 202(i) and 202(j) of such title, shall not apply if an application is filed within the one-year period beginning with the first day of the month after the month in which this Act is enacted.
