Public Law 89-473

AN ACT

June 29, 1966
[H. R. 6438]

To authorize any executive department or independent establishment of the Government, or any bureau or office thereof, to make appropriate accounting adjustment or reimbursement between the respective appropriations available to such departments and establishments, or any bureau or office thereof.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, subject to limitations applicable with respect to each appropriation concerned, each appropriation available to any executive department or independent establishment of the Government, or any bureau or office thereof, may be charged, at any time during a fiscal year, for the benefit of any other appropriation available to such executive department or independent establishment, or any bureau or office thereof, for the purpose of financing the procurement of materials and services, or financing other costs, for which funds are available both in the financing appropriation to be charged and in the appropriation so benefited. Such expenses so financed shall be charged on a final basis during, or as of the close of, such fiscal year to the appropriation so benefited, with appropriate credit to the financing appropriation.

SEC. 2. (a) Section 14 of title 13, United States Code, is hereby repealed.

(b) The table of contents of subchapter I of chapter 1 of such title 13 is amended by striking out

"14. Reimbursement between appropriations."

SEC. 3. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as affecting in any manner the provisions of section 632(g) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, approved September 4, 1961 (75 Stat. 454).

Approved June 29, 1966.
